Location of SAC operations and human rights violations Aug 29 - Sep 11, 2022

- SAC airstrikes and indiscriminate shelling damage over 100 houses, cause civilian casualties in Moebye

Attempts by SAC to send troop reinforcements and supplies into Demawso, Pruso and Moebye in early September have met strong resistance. On September 3, five SAC trucks carrying rations from Demawso to Pruso were attacked by combined Karenni forces, and one truck destroyed. On September 8, about 100 SAC troop reinforcements entering Moebye town were attacked by combined Karenni forces, triggering four days of fierce fighting, in which SAC shelled indiscriminately from Loikaw Artillery Battalion and Phekon 422 and launched multiple airstrikes over Moebye town. The shelling damaged over 100 houses in Moebye, causing the death of a young boy and injuring his father.

On August 29, in the morning, KA, and KNDF B-21 launched an attack on the SAC outpost at Pawn river bridge in Bawlake township, killing 2 SAC soldiers. On the same day, at 9 pm, SAC artillery shelling into a village in Demawso injured two people, damaged a house and killed a cow.

On August 30, KA, KNDF B-03, B-11, SSRY, and PKPDF troops launched a guerrilla attack, including the use of snipers, on a SAC outpost near Pon Pin and Lewel villages, Pehon township, killing 3 SAC troops.

On September 3, at 4:30 am, the KNDF B-15 launched an attack near Kadalar village, Pruso township, on five SAC trucks carrying rations from Demawso to Pruso, killing 3 SAC troops and destroying a truck. In the evening, KNDF B-15 launched an attack on a SAC outpost near Htee Taw Ku village, Pruso township, killing 2 SAC troops. Moreover, KA and KNDF B-17 attacked a SAC outpost in Shadaw township, killing 2 SAC troops and injuring several others. Also, KA, KNDF B-03, B-09 and B-11 attacked a SAC outpost in Htey Daung Mu Payar mountain in Pehon, killing one SAC soldier.

On September 4, at 6 am, KA and KNDF B-10 clashed with SAC troops near Ngwe Daung Ywar Thit village, Pruso township, killing one SAC soldier and seizing some weapons (including one MA-3, bullets and other ammunition). At 1:30 pm, the KA, KNDF B-04 and B-15 attacked a SAC outpost in Daw Nye Ku and Htee Paw So village, Pruso township, killing 6 SAC soldiers.

On September 7, at 8 am, KA, KNDF B-21 attacked SAC troops from Bawlake and Ywar Thit town who were carrying bamboo near the 12 mile outpost; 3 SAC soldiers were killed, 2 badly injured, and some ammunition was seized, according to a KNDF statement. On the same day, a teacher's house in a private high school compound in western Demawso township was damaged by two 120 mm artillery shells fired by SAC.

On September 8, about 100 SAC troops advancing from Warresuplaing village to Moebye had a fierce clash with Moebye PDF, KA, KNDF, KRU, and URF; at least 30 SAC soldiers were killed, 12 injured and some SAC ammunition was seized. Indiscriminate artillery fire by SAC in Moebye town killed a young boy, under 10 years old, and injured his father.

On September 9, from 7 am to 6 pm, there was a second day of clashes between the combined Karenni troops and SAC in Moebye town. Due to the large number of SAC casualties, at 3 pm, the SAC launched six airstrikes. During the clashes, 13 civilians who were blocked in a factory were rescued by a Moebye rescue team, according to a MBPDF statement.

On September 10, from 11 am to 6 pm, there were clashes in Moebye town between combined Karenni troops and SAC, in which 11 SAC soldiers were killed, 11 SAC soldiers injured and 10 Karenni troops injured. At 3:50 pm, the SAC launched seven airstrikes, causing damage to several houses.
