Location of SAC operations and human rights violations Oct 24 - Nov 6, 2022

- Indiscriminate SAC shelling kills and injures civilians, damages houses

During the past two weeks SAC troops have continued shelling indiscriminately into civilian areas in Loikaw township in their attempts to secure the Moebye-Loikaw road. The shelling has caused a large number of civilian casualties, including women and children.

On October 26, at 4 am, Moebye-based SAC LIB 422 fired artillery shells into Warikaungku village, Loikaw township, injuring a husband and wife and their 25-year-old son in one household, and another civilian in another location; two houses were damaged. On the same day, at 12 pm, artillery shelling by SAC killed a five-year-old child riding a bicycle and injured three children nearby in Pekinkawku village, Loikaw township; a house was also damaged. The shelling caused about 4,000 previously displaced villagers who had attempted to return home to flee again to nearby villages and jungle.

On October 27, KA and KNDF B-14 launched an attack on a SAC base near the Pawn River in Shadaw township. After the clash, indiscriminate shelling by SAC damaged a house in nearby Pawnchaung village.

On October 29, a man riding a motorcycle was shot and injured by SAC troops on the Moebye–Loikaw main road. On the same day, at 1 pm, a civilian was injured when Karenni resistance forces and SAC troops clashed between Konetar and Saungkan villages, Loikaw township.

On November 1, even though there were no clashes, SAC fired 12 shells indiscriminately into Laypogyi and Wanpan villages, Loikaw township, wounding a pregnant woman and her husband in Laypogyi village and injuring two men in Wanpan village.

On November 4, at 12 pm, despite there being no clashes, SAC fired shells indiscriminately into Khoneso village, Loikaw township, causing one house to catch fire, and hitting another house, injuring four family members inside: a 54-year-old woman, a 30-year-old woman, a 33-year-old man and a 2-year-old child.
